Touch of Pleasure

Buddhism moved from India to China through the translation of sacred texts, the great shift from epic to romance in the twelfth century in Europe was a result of translation, the debates that led to the theological revolution of the Reformation hinged on translation, the notion of the Romantic Sublime spread across Europe and the new territories in North and South America by means of translation. Let me be clear: The Museum of Tolerance is not being built on the Mamilla Cemetery, but on an adjacent 3-acre site where, for a half-century, hundreds of people of all faiths have parked in a threelevel underground structure without any protest.
