Doyouknowanywaystohelpprotectagainstcontentfrombeingrippedoff. At the end of this avenue lies the declaration of the rights of man: startlingly secular, individualist, utilitarian. Every minute wasted on being late is a minute that could have been used to do something productive. His witness was so natural - one child to another - that I felt under no pressure at all and soon found myself on the road to full Christian discipleship. During domestic worship and church attendance, children acquired a familiarity with biblical language and structures long before they started formal schooling.
